

DESCRIPTION

The High School Internship program is truly one-of-a-kind. It's all about teamwork, fun, and personal growth while making a meaningful impact on the kids of Summerland. As an intern, you will work with 4 other interns. When you join us, you'll kick things off with a week of essential training, team bonding, and prep from July 9th to 12th. Throughout the summer, you be working together as a team to run exciting Kids Summer Day Camps. The intern team will meet weekly together for mentorship and support. Our goal is to see you grow even deeper in your understanding of how who you are and your unique gifts. As an intern you will have opportunities to step out of your comfort zone, find your voice, discover your strengths, and ultimately to have the best summer.
